

Where To Climb In Newcastle

The Valley

The Valley is Newcastle's biggest bouldering gym. It has a range of routes for climbers of all abilities and is beginner friendly. Due to COVID-19 restrictions you currently must pre-book to climb in a session. Check the website below for more details.

<https://www.climbnewcastle.com/>

Follow link to google maps - The Valley

The Pool

The Pool is Newcastle's smaller bouldering gym. It is located near to the Valley and is nice if you would like to try some different routes. They too are running pre-booked slots at the moment.

<https://www.climbnewcastle.com/>

Follow link to google maps - The Pool

Both centres are owned by Climb Newcastle. This means that bookings for both are made through the same website. It also means that if you buy membership for one, it is also valid in the other.

If you have a bike/ don't mind a walk, both walls are accessible from the town centre/Jesmond. Otherwise, you can take the metro from St James to Byker station. Turning right out of the station it is a one minute walk to the Pool and five minutes from the Valley. The Pool is just within the Byker housing complex, so follow the path under an archway before turning right.

Newcastle Climbing Centre (The Church)

If you happen to be blessed with a climbing housemate, you can check out Newcastle Climbing Centre (NCC). NCC is a roped climbing wall within a large converted church (you can't miss it!).

Please note that until local restrictions are lifted we cannot provide you with belay teaching. Therefore, you and your housemate both must be competent climbers and belayers.

You can reach NCC by taking the metro to Chillingham road (the stop after Byker) , turning left out of the metro and walking for around five minutes.

Follow link to google maps - NCC

Metro map for reference

